The agents in the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore should deposit in cash the total amount of the security namely rupees one thousand in Government Treasury in the name of the Inspector-General of Education in Mysore, and submit the receipt to this Office before the 1st October 1920. Those agents at the District and Taluk Headquarters should deposit, rupees five hundred (Rs. 500) and two hundred and fifty (Rs. 250) respectively in the District and Taluk Treasuries, in the name of the Inspector-General of Education in Mysore, and submit the receipts to this Office before the 15th October 1920.

The Agents should further execute a bond on 8 anna stamped paper with the Inspector-General of Education in the form shown below and submit it not later than the 15th October 1920:—

An Agreement made this..... day of..... one thousand nine hundred and twenty, between the Inspector-General of Education in Mysore, for and on behalf of the Government of Mysore, hereinafter called the Principal, of the one part, and..... (hereinafter called the Agent) of the other part.

Whereby it is agreed as follows:—

1. The Agent is hereby appointed the retail seller at..... for the term of three years, from the date hereof (but determinable as hereinafter mentioned) of such Departmental Text-books and other Educational Publications as may be published or issued by the Principal from time to time.

2. The Principal will supply the Agent, on the Indent of the Agent, the said books and publications and deliver the same free of expense at..... in such quantities not exceeding at one time Rs..... in value, with the necessary directions and in every way ready for sale.

3. The Principal will, from time to time, furnish the Agent, in writing, with particulars of the prices at which the books and publications entrusted to him may be sold by him, and the Agent shall not sell at prices other than those so fixed by the Principal.

4. The Agent shall supply to Government Schools such non-departmental texts and other publications as may, from time to time, be required in writing by the Principal at the prevailing market rates (previously approved of by the Principal); and submit to the Principal for adjustment duly endorsed bills for the supplies so made.

5. The Agent shall place, on the premises where he carries on the Agency business hereby constituted, a price list notifying to the public, as conspicuously as possible, showing the prices of the books and publications he is hereby authorised to sell, and the Agent shall make proper and sufficient arrangements for the sale of the said books and publications at all reasonable and convenient hours of business.

6. On and after the date of these presents, all retail sales in the Government Central Book Depot will cease, but book-sellers, other than the Agents appointed hereby or under similar agreements, may obtain wholesale supplies of departmental books and publications, on such terms as may be agreed upon, from time to time, between them and the Principal.

7. The Agent will be given credit to the maximum extent of Rs..... and he shall furnish Cash Security to the extent of the credit allowed him.

8. The Agent will be supplied with books and publications to the extent of the credit above specified, and until sold and accounted for, they shall remain in the hands of the Agent as the property of the Principal. The Agent may, however, return to the Government Central Book Depot, such books and publications as remain unsold at any time before the expiration of three months from the date of issue, provided they are, at the time of the return, in good saleable condition. In the event of such return being accepted, credit shall be given for the price thereof. In case they are not returned within the prescribed three months' time, they will be considered to have been sold to the Agent and no refund will be given on them.

9. The Agent shall not give credit to any person except at his own personal risk.

10. The Agent will be allowed a commission of 15 per cent upon the prices of all departmental educational publications sold by him on behalf of the principal, provided, however, that in the case of the Four Kannada Readers printed and published for the Educational Department by the Bangalore Press, the rate of commission shall be 12½ per cent.

11. The Principal will not be liable to bear the whole or any part of the office expenses of the Agent, which term shall include the rent of premises, wages of clerks and servants, cost of stationery and postal and other expenses that may be incurred in the procuring of purchasers.

12. The Agent shall pay, at the end of each month, all moneys received by him in the course of the Agency business into the Treasury, to the credit of the Principal, after deducting the commission payable to him as hereinbefore mentioned, the Treasury receipts for such payments shall be forwarded before the 5th of the month following to the Curator of the Government Central Book Depot, with a statement of the cash and sale accounts of the previous month.

13. The Agent will keep a true account of all such books and publications, as the Principal shall, from time to time, deliver or consign to him, or that may come into his hands, and of all sales and all moneys which shall have been received by him or come to his hands for and on account of the same, and he shall, every month, transmit a copy of such account to the Principal. All the books, accounts and other writings relating to the matters aforesaid, shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of the Principal or any person or persons appointed by him in this behalf.

14. This Agency shall, ipso facto, determine (save so far as concerns the rights and remedies of the principal) upon the commission by the Agent of any grave irregularity or fraud on the Principal in connection herewith, or upon his failing to carry out any stipulation contained in this agreement, and in the case of breach or non-performance or of neglect to observe the same, the Agent shall forfeit to the Principal, the whole of his security deposit, or such portion thereof, as may be deemed necessary in the discretion of the Principal to compensate for the loss to the Department or the inconvenience to the public.

15. Either of the parties hereto may give to the other three calendar months' notice in writing of his intention to determine this agreement and on the expiration of such period, this agreement shall be wholly determined.

In witness whereof.....

Notification D. No. 33, dated 18th September 1920.

Mr. S. Chakrapani Iyengar, B.A., B.L., Revenue Sub-Division Officer, Chintamani, President of the Chintamani Taluk Municipality, is appointed Chairman of the Compulsory Education Committee, Chintamani.

C. R. REDDY,

Inspector-General of Education.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SHIMOGA DISTRICT.

Notification dated 20th September 1920.

Under Article 53A, M. A. C., Vol. 1, all officers authorised to draw bills for salaries of establishments are hereby requested to send such bills to the Treasury three days before the end of the month to which they relate. This will facilitate the audit and payment of the bills on the 1st working day of the next month.

Bills which are not sent according to the above procedure will not be ensured for payment on the first working day of the next month.
